

DISCLAIMER: LIMITATIONS ON THE DISTRIBUTION, USE, AND SCOPE OF VISITING TEAM REPORTS

It is the policy of ISACS that this report be treated as a privileged document. Two hard copies have been submitted to the president of ISACS, and two copies have been sent to the chief administrator of the school. Beyond this distribution, no one – including the visiting team leader and other members of the visiting team, the Accreditation Review Committee, and the ISACS Central Office – is authorized to release any of the information contained in this report without the express approval of the chief administrator of the school.

This report is intended for use by the administration, faculty, and governing body of the school. Appropriate use includes release to the larger school community, if done so in an accurate and balanced manner. The report is not written for the purpose of providing a public relations document. If a school uses the report in a manner that misrepresents or distorts its contents or purpose, the school will be subject to corrective action by ISACS.

The charge of the ISACS visiting team was to determine the actual situation as it existed in the school, its program and its procedures, and not to pass judgment on the professional personnel involved. Hence, this report is an objective description of circumstances as they appeared to trained and experienced educators. Any use of this report as an official assessment of a staff person's professional competency would be in violation of the professional ethics under which a school evaluation is conducted.

Any recommendations on safety issues should be addressed as soon as is feasible: While the ISACS team may comment on conditions related to safety, the report is not to be construed as substituting for periodic inspections of the facilities as required by law and by principles of good practice in risk management gleaned from professional counsel to the school.

The members of the visiting team voluntarily reflected their professional judgment in arriving at the conclusions reported in this document. They are willing to support the thoughtful evaluations that they have made, provided the report is used appropriately. They are not to be held accountable for an injudicious or unauthorized use of this document.
